

Join the Fight against Oesophageal Cancer

We are delighted to announce the launch of the Fiona Wade Appeal for the Oesophageal Patients Association. Fiona has designed a wristband to help raise awareness of Oesophageal Cancer. There will also be a number of videos for you to view and share.

OPA Patron and TV actress Fiona Wade, better known as Emmerdale's Priya Sharma has a personal connection with the OPA, having lost her father to Oesophageal Cancer. 'I had never heard of his type of cancer before and I always feel to this day that if we had been more aware of oesophageal cancer or reflux disease then, for sure, earlier diagnosis would have made a huge difference and maybe saved his life.'

These wristbands are just one of the ways the OPA is trying to raise the profile of Oesophageal Cancer, and with your help we can promote earlier diagnosis to help save lives, assist patients who are facing the challenges of Oesophageal Cancer. Our aim is to provide help to those suffering in the form of support groups, a dedicated helpline & informative booklets.

Please will you help?

Your donation will make a huge difference and help us to support patients, their families and carers who are touched by this devastating disease.
